

KS3

Let's get started...watch this video

The Jelling Stones, thousand-year-old Viking runestones

SOMETHING TO READ

Stolen History by Sathnam Sanghera

An accessible, engaging and essential introduction to the British empire for readers, by bestselling author of Empireland, Sathnam Sanghera.

SOMETHING TO VIEW

Black and British - A Forgotten History

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b082w9p9/black-and-british-a-forgotten-history-1-first-encounters>

David Olusoga explores the relationship between Britain and people whose origins lie in Africa.

SOMETHING TO LISTEN TO

Warfare

<https://podcasts.apple.com/ie/podcast/searching-for-the-lost-of-world-war-one/id1042631089?i=1000542409443>

Searching for the Lost of World War One
Dan Snow's History Hit

SOMEWHERE TO VISIT

Battle of Hastings Abbey and Battlefield (NT)

Ashmolean – free entry

Bletchley Park

Imperial War Museum – Spies Lies and Deception - free entry

SOMETHING TO DO

Make up a ghost story

Write a ghost story set in a historic ruin such as Corfe Castle you could use historical figures or make up your own characters using the site as inspiration.

SOMETHING TO WATCH

Try watching a virtual tour of an International Museum:

British Museum, London

Pergamon Museum, Berlin

Louvre, Paris

National Museum of Anthropology, Mexico City

AND FINALLY...
an act of kindness

..... Random Act of Kindness Day is on 17th February have a look at famous historical acts of kindness throughout history. Here is one to get you started Fukushima volunteers.